

FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT – 17TH MARCH 2024 TO 23RD MARCH 2024.

- Next Sunday 24th March is Palm Sunday. This day begins the Holy Week-the most Sacred time in the Liturgical calendar. Masses on Palm Sunday will be as follows, 6am, 7am, 8am 9.30am & 5.30pm. Palms will be blessed before the 8am mass in the Church grounds. Next mass will begin at 9.30 am instead of 9.15am. Also please note that next Saturday, 23rd March evening mass will not be Sunday mass. It will be weekday mass at 7pm. Next Sunday no vehicle parking in the church premises for 7am to 8am Mass.
- The Solemnity of S. Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary is on Tuesday 19th March.
- Konkani missions by Bro. Prakash D'souza will be on Monday, 18th March, Tuesday, 19th March, & Wednesday, 20th March from 6.30pm to 9.30pm on the parish grounds. It will begin with Praise & Worship at 6.30pm, mass at 7pm, followed by missions. Way of the cross in Konkani on Tuesday 19th March, will be at 6pm in the church.
- Lenten confessions will be on 22nd, 23rd & 25th March, from 7.30am to 9am in the mornings & 6pm to 9pm in the evenings.
- For details of Holy week programme, announcements will be made next Sunday & banners will also be put up in & around the church premises.
- The dates for the Lok Sabha elections has been announced. All Parishioners must vote in the forthcoming elections. PPC members and community heads will help you to check that your name is on the electoral rolls. Kindly cooperate. All parishioners must participate in the electoral process and exercise their duty as responsible citizens of the country